Explore the mystical Orhon Valley in Central Mongolia, a nest of rich historic and cultural sites. The area is full of the history of the ancient statehoods of Central Asia including the first known writing culture of nomadic tribes, Orhon-Enisei scripts and the memorial of Turkic general Tonukuk, 8th century AD. You will see the remarkable archaeological discoveries of the 13th century Kharkhorum, the capital city of the Mongol Empire. Experience the daily chanting of Buddhist Monks in the stunning Erdenezuu Monastery. Challenge your equestrian skills in the hot spring area of Hangai Mountain range and ride a Bactrian camel around the tallest sand dunes of the Gobi Desert.
